Saturday was a misty and humid day, with some sprinkles expected to linger through the early morning hours. A medal match was chosen for the day, and Phil drew Ray as his partner with Pete teaming with Matt. The tenth hole set the tone for the day and highlighted the difference in a medal match, as everyone was on or around the green after their second shot. But Matt rolled his birdie putt just past the hole and tapped in for par, allowing Pete a good run for his birdie, which he converted by flushing his putt almost completely around the hole before it dropped, while both Phil and Ray three putted for bogey. A quick two shot lead for Pete and Matt. Pete and Matt took advantage of the momentum on eleven, this time with Pete getting his par and allowing Matt a free run at birdie from ten feet, which he converted. Phil narrowly missed his birdie chance, making par, but their team dropped another shot in the match. All players missed the twelfth green with their approach shots, but both Matt and Pete got up and down for pars while Phil and Ray had to settle for bogey. Play got a bit sloppy at this point, with the thirteenth hole halved with bogeys and then a bogey by Ray winning the fifteenth hole, getting them back in the match. Pete got the large lead right back with a par on the fifteenth, and his team led by five shots going up the hill, a daunting lead with three to go. Pete hit a nice drive and approach shot on sixteen, and although Matt settled for bogey, Pete two putted for his par and another shot added to the lead. The match was conceded on the seventeenth green after Pete followed a gorgeous drive with a nice chip and putt to save his par, extending the lead and leading to the ceremonial handshake.
