Another cool but rather nice day, another inexplicable frost delay for thirty minutes, adversely affecting Phil who had to be in New York and would need everyone to play a fast paced round. It was to be a traditional match pitting Pete and Phil against Ray and Matt. Nobody hit the fairway on the tenth tee...Matt punched his approach under the left side trees and stopped the ball on the front of the green, Ray with a nice wedge from the thick rough that stopped ten feet from the pin, Phil over the green from the rough, and Pete clipping a branch from the right side but still managing to get close to the green. Pete chipped to three feet and saved par, Ray just missed his birdie putt and made his par, and Matt's free look at birdie hit a hole and broke left, giving him a par as well. Again nobody found the green on eleven, with Pete the closest and just off the front side, Ray to the right, Phil in the left bunker and Matt way long in the middle of the twelfth fairway. Phil hit his bunker shot to five feet below the pin and his partner hit his chip to three or four feet, while Matt hit a long flop that stopped fifteen feet below the hole. Matt made the long putt, putting pressure on the opponents, and they were up to the task after Phil saved his par from the sand with a good uphill putt. Ray was right, Phil left, Pete in the fairway and Matt long down the fairway on twelve. Phil hit a nice shot that stopped in front of the green, Pete went long, Matt stopped on the front and only Matt could make his par to win the hole and give his team an early lead. Matt got a big break on thirteen when his tee shot hit the road on the left side and bounced farther down the hole and back into the fairway, while the others had to play more conventional approach shots. Pete left his approach in the trap and could not save his par while Matt hit his shorter approach to the front of the green and left his first sidehill putt within a foot for par to win another hole. It was all Phil and Pete on the fourteenth, though, as both Pete and Phil hit nice tee shots and better second shots, followed by Phil landing his approach on the right side of the green and two putts later their team had cut the lead in half. Pete hit an eight iron just on the front left of the fifteenth green, Phil was on the right side and Matt hit his hybrid to the middle of the green. Phil two putted for par, giving Pete a chance for birdie which he ran just short of the hole, while Matt also took two putts to make his par and the hole was halved. Phil almost went out of bounds on sixteen but got a carom off the trees, still a long way to go, while Pete was long in the middle of the fairway, Ray to the right, Matt in the left rough. Ray hit a nice approach that stopped on the high side fringe, Phil with a beautiful fairway metal to just in front of the left side trap, Pete on the front of the green and Matt with a gorgeous six iron that stopped three feet under the cup. Ray hit a delicate chip and made his par, enough to win the hole when neither opponent could match, but Matt made it one better with a birdie putt for three. Pete came out of the woods on seventeen and went just over the green, coming back with a good chip and putt for bogey. Ray matched that with his own chip and two putts, so the hole would be no worse than tied and the match ended. But Matt made a long par putt from behind the hole for his four, so Ray and Matt won the hole and closed out the match, three and one. Phil was already late for his appointment in New York, so there would be automatic press this day.
