The weather was gorgeous and hopes were high for a good Stableford match. The weather did its part, but the players provided some very sloppy play until the last hole where Ray closed out his customary win in this format. There were few highlights to note, but we take a moment to give credit to Pete for a beautiful hook punch shot from the left side woods on the twelfth hole, nearly saving par after his tee shot came to rest nestled against the trunk of a tree, drawing a low line drive to the middle of the green. Ray had some very nice shots as well, routine approach shots to greens and two putt pars. And Phil played the eighteenth very well, down the middle off the tee, onto the green and a good long first putt to set up a par, net birdie, to leapfrog into second place. But overall the play was uninspired and forgettable, leading to a very short recap. Ray won, Phil came in second. On to next weekend.
