An unexpectedly wet and dreary day, as the forecast was for good weather all during the week only to turn to showers overnight. This would be the beginning of a traditional match play round robin, pitting Phil and Pete against Ray and Matt. Ray and Matt started with tee shots in the fairway while Pete was to the right and Phil to the left. But Phil saved his team with a gorgeous approach shot after having to chip back to the fairway, stopping three or four feet from the cup and saving his par. That tied the hole when Matt could not birdie from the fringe and Ray missed from ten feet. Ray hit the only good tee shot on eleven, drawing nicely from right to left and stopping just off the front. From there, Ray chipped to four feet and made his par putt, the only three on the hole, giving his team a one hole lead. Matt and Phil were short on twelve, Ray and Pete longer. Both Phil and Pete found the green with their approaches, while Matt was off the front and Ray through the green. Matt made a good chip and was conceded his par, matched by Ray's chip and putt, and after both Pete and Phil narrowly missed their birdie putts and made fours, the hole was halved. Everyone in the fairway on thirteen, nobody on the green in regulation. Four good chips, close enough for good looks at pars, but nobody could make the putt and Phil's net four won the hole and brought the match back to even. Phil and Matt hit the better drives on fourteen, but everyone eventually found trouble with Matt going into the lateral hazard on the right. Everyone was hitting four to the green with a chance to save par. Ray missed the green, chipped and made a four footer for bogey. This gave Matt a free putt from the fringe, and although he clearly thought he had missed the putt with a quick exclamation of "It's not even close", the putt continued to roll down the slope and eventually found the low side of the cup for par to win the hole. Matt missed right on fifteen but Ray hit a beautiful shot to within ten feet. Pete's tee shot hit the front and got a "Noodle" roll onto the green and toward the cup. Pete putted first and nailed his birdie putt dead center, and after Ray missed on the high side, Pete and Phil won the hole and squared the match again. Ray, Phil and Pete all hit approach shots short of the sixteenth green and even though Ray mishit his first chip, his second chip and a good putt gave him a bogey, enough to tie the hole after neither Phil nor Pete could get up and down. Pete and Matt were both in the woods on seventeen, requiring them to play back to the fairway for their approach shots. Phil and Ray were both around the cart signs. Phil hit a good chip to twelve feet but Ray made up for his mistake on sixteen with a spectacular chip to eighteen inches, par conceded. Neither Pete nor Phil could make their putts, Pete hitting his very hard and bouncing off the right rear of the cup but not dropping and Ray had given his team a one hole lead going to eighteen. Ray followed with a good drive on eighteen, followed by a good drive under pressure by Pete who's team needed to win the hole to tie the match. Pete pulled his approach and Ray hit his true to eight feet and after Pete could not chip in from the edge the match was over, pars halving the eighteenth and Ray and Matt winning the day....one up.
